OFFICERS INVOLVED IN TRAGEDY COSTING LIFE OF JAMES G. GRAHAM UNDER ARREST; HEARING POSTPONED UNTIL AFTER INQUEST

Latter Action is Taken By Advice of District Attorney Miller.

POLICEMAN IS INCLUDED

Name of D. H. Turner Among Those of Four Constables Contained In Information Before Alderman Colborn. Sen. Crow Officers Counsel

Charged with aggravated assault and battery and felonious shooting with intent to kill and murder, in connection with the death of James G. Graham, who was riddled with bullets at his home in Francis avenue Tuesday night by state constables who mistook him for Charles Cramer, wanted for bigamy and other crimes, four state troopers and a member of the city police force were scheduled to be arraigned this afternoon at 2 o'clock before Alderman W. D. Colborn, but instructions from the district attorney's office this morning were to postpone the hearing until after the inquest.

Informations were lodged by G. W. Curry, brother-in-law of Graham against Troopers Edward Cohee who is at the Cottage State hospital wounded by Graham, who thought him a thug, and Clyde Gaffney, Cohee's companion in the assault on Graham; Corporal J Russell, who was in command of the squad of constables sent here from Greensburg, to search for Cramer, and Trooper Rhodes and Patrolman D H Turner of the Connellsville force who was with the state officers earlier in the evening on a visit to the home of Curry, in search of Cramer who was reported to have been staying there

The officers were not locked up being given their freedom on their own recognizance.

He crossed the street he says and fell in the Stang yard. Graham fired the second shot at close quarters and as the officer staggered to his feet, stooping again to get his gun he felt a third bullet pierce his side. He emptied his gun into Graham he says and grappled. While they were struggling the officer says some men crossed the street and began kicking and beating him. He says he regained his feet and kicked one in the stomach. This was Joseph Graham a brother of the dead man. A boy wresting his billy from his hand beat him over the head

The officer said as Graham started across the street a woman came out of the house and cried "Hm they are cops." They were at the house for an hour this evening. The officer said Graham shouted he didn't care who they were. After that he fell into a faint he said

The boy who wrested the billy from Cohee was Robert Curry a high school student

From what knowledge could be gained of the affair Wednesday there was general condemnation of the officers. It was admitted that in the face of the error in identity the thing easily could happen but there was censure of the officers for firing as many shots as it was said they fired in a residential section

While it is stated that the dying man old Rev Richardson that it was he who fired the first shot in the belief that he was dealing with robbers Michael McLaughlin father in law of Graham said the wounded man told him that the first shot came from a pole some distance away. I was behind this that Trooper Gaffney was said to have been stationed. This story was confirmed also by Joseph Graham a brother who said he was told the shot grazed James' head. There is a mark on the head which shows the passage of a bullet

Graham entered the employ of the Pittsburg Brewing company when 16 years old and was attached to the plant in McCormick avenue for about 21 years remaining until the company suspended the manufacture of its product when war time prohibition became effective. He was after that employed at hotels here and later as a trackman at the Davidson coke plant. He worked there the day he was shot

The victim of the officers' blunder leaves a bride of a few weeks. Last December 17 Graham was married to Miss Anna Elizabeth McLaughlin daughter of Mr and Mrs Michael McLaughlin of North Prospect street. His parents Mr and Mrs Joseph Graham are both dead. Besides his wife he leaves two brothers Joseph D Francis avenue Connellsville and George of Morgantown W Va and three sisters Mrs W O Stillwagon Connellsville township near the end of McCormick avenue Mrs Samuel Trump and Mrs George W Curry near whose home the tragedy was enacted

For many years Graham had been a member of the Macabees. He was also a member of the association of stage employes

Trooper Edward Cohee according to a statement made at the hospital before noon was resting well. There is not much doubt now that he will recover. One bullet was removed from his wrist and an X-ray examination showed that the others were lodged against ribs one on the right, the other on the left side

DUNBAR AFFLICTED

Not Less Than 200 Cases of "Grippy Cold" in That Community.

Special to The Courier

DUNBAR Feb 12—Dunbar is in the throes of a wave of the new disease which for want of a real name for it the doctors are misnaming flu but which Dr O R Altman the county health official more correctly calls a grippy cold. In effect it is much like the grippe of the seventies in that it gets in the muscles the back the legs and arms and as the Irishman then said "You don't get over it for three weeks until after you are entirely well." Whole families are down with it and in fact when once it gets in a family it rarely misses one. The sickness lasts from three to 10 days but in most cases the patient recovers ... generally requiring a relapse to cause the development of pneumonia

Among the families suffering are those of Harry and Joseph Bunting David S Leapline Herbert Baker it having missed none in these families. There are six down in the family of Herbert Baker at Keffers. The doctors are all busy day and night. There are not fewer than 200 cases in Dunbar and vicinity but the situation is well in hand

DECLARATION THAT MINISTER ORDERED DRINK AT LOCAL BAR BASIS OF ACTION FOR SLANDER

Holding that it was no crime for the defendant to charge a minister with entering a bar and taking a drink or with taking a ride with his aunt counsel for Elmer Nicholson of Springfield township offered a motion before Judge E H Reppert in court in Uniontown this morning to order an involuntary non suit of the action of Rev C A Weaver former pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church at Normalville charging slander. The court overruled the motion

Before prohibition became effective a minister under the law had a right to enter a bar and buy a drink and drink it if he wished counsel argued. It was charged that Rev Weaver did this. Unholy motives were intimated in the ride with the aunt

It was to William Prinkey that Nicholson the defendant made the alleged slanderous remarks that caused the trouble in the church at the mountain town according to evidence. Prinkey testified that he once told Nicholson that the minister had said in a sermon that "If I were going to die and were told a drink of whisky would save me I would not take it." To this according to the witness Nicholson replied "If he says that again you can tell him he's a damn liar. I saw him go into the Smith House in Connellsville order a drink of whisky and drink it"

Prinkey also told of giving a note for $490 and $10 in cash in the office of Attorney A F Jones in Uniontown to escape a $10,000 slander suit. He said he had been summoned to the office of the attorney and told that this was the only way out of the difficulty. No physical effort was made to influence him he said

Counsel for the minister admitted that the note had been entered against Nicholson

There was but little reference in the trial that the minister had gone driving with an aunt

An unusual turn in the case was presented when Harry Marshall a member of the jury from Brownsville asked permission to question the witness Prinkey. The court said that was a matter for counsel to determine. Permission was given. "I just wanted to know," said the juror "whether Nicholson told Prinkey that it was at the Smith House or some other hotel that he saw the defendant take a drink." Prinkey said it was the Smith House and the questioner sank back into his seat, apparently satisfied. The motive of the question was not explained

Rev Weaver was pastor of the Normalville church from 1914 to 1916

Daniel Whipkey testified he was converted to the United Brethren church in 1915. He related that one summer day after his conversion he came to Connellsville and being very thirsty intended going into the Smith House for a cooling drink. As he entered the door he said he saw Rev Weaver standing at the bar and fearing he would be recognized as a recent convert who should not imbibe he left without quenching his thirst. He did not say he saw Rev Weaver drinking

ANNOUNCEMENT

The Brunswick

ALL PHONOGRAPHS IN ONE

IT is our pleasure to announce Brunswick Records, another super-product by the "House of Brunswick"—artistic companions of Brunswick Phonographs

They are made under the direction of great interpreters—men who have the power and faculty of developing musical selections as the composers would have them played

Just as there are directors for the opera, the stage, the orchestra, we now have directors for records.

This means that each Brunswick Record is not only the work of some accomplished artist, but is accompanied by the shadings of a renowned director.

This is why Brunswick Records rise above the qualities most records have in common.

Easy to Make This Pine Cough Remedy

Thousands of families swear by its prompt results Inexpensive, and saves about $2

You know that pine is used in nearly all prescriptions and remedies for coughs The reason is that pine contains several peculiar elements that have a remarkable effect in soothing and healing the membranes of the throat and chest. Pine is famous for this purpose.

Pine cough syrups are combinations of pine and syrup. The 'syrup part is usually plain sugar syrup

To make the best pine cough remedy that money can buy, put 2½ ounces of Pinex in a pint bottle and fill up with home made sugar syrup Or you can use clarified molasses honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup Either way, you make a full pint—more than you can buy ready-made for three times the money It is pure, good and very pleasant—children take it eagerly

You can feel this take hold of a cough or cold in a way that means business. The cough may be dry, hoarse and tight, or may be persistently loose from the formation of phlegm The cause is the same—inflamed membranes—and this Pinex and Syrup combination will stop it—usually in 24 hours or less. Splendid, too, for bronchial asthma, hoarseness, or any ordinary throat ailment.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and is famous the world over for its prompt effect upon coughs.

Beware of substitutes. Ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with directions and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

THURSDAY EVE'G, FEB. 12, 1920.

LINCOLN'S UNFINISHED WORK.

"He belongs to the ages; not merely to America, nor to a period, but to the world."

This terse eulogy bestowed upon Abraham Lincoln by John Drinkwater, the English dramatist, author of the play bearing the name of the Great Emancipator as its title, gives that conception of the character of Lincoln which is now everywhere accepted as the true measure of the greatness of one of the most august characters in history.

"As the guiding and compelling figure in the most critical period in our national history he revealed the greatness of America and prepared it to assume the world leadership which other nations now accord it. Standing for those principles that are the very fundamentals of the deepest and most abiding truths underlying the proper relationship between governments and the governed everywhere, he today appears, not alone to America but to the whole world, as the embodiment of right, truth and justice and the greatest exponent of freedom based on law that history has recorded.

While we revere and honor his memory as one of the wisest, sanest and most just of our presidents, and our consecrated and Heaven-appointed leader through one of the most perilous periods in the nation's life, we have abundant need in the trying days now before us to again make him our mentor and guide.

The great work he began we ourselves now have before us. In fitting ourselves for the task is committed to succeeding generations, of which we are one, we can do no better than to draw inspiration and take courage from the calm, strong soul of Lincoln and give heed to his wise teachings. From him we can learn how to inculcate a deeper reverence for law, which Lincoln said should "become the political religion of the nation"; how to preserve the sovereignty of a free people and protect them from the impairment of their rights by an arrogant majority; how to better insure the security of the possession of private property rightfully acquired; how better to encourage thrift and enterprise among the people; how best to do our part in helping the world to recover from the devastating conflict through which it has recently passed, and how best to safeguard against a recurrence of a murderous onslaught on Christianity and Civilization.

But to be able to do these things even in part as Lincoln would have had them done we must rededicate ourselves to the "unfinished work" he "so nobly advanced." From him we must "take increased devotion," and, as he did, we must "here highly resolve that this nation under God, shall have a new birth of freedom, and that government of the people, by the people and for the people, shall not perish from the earth."

Put still more, we must imbibe the generous, wholesome spirit of Lincoln which was so splendidly typified in the noble utterance to which he gave expression upon the occasion of his second inauguration:

"With malice toward none; with charity for all; with firmness in the right, as God gives us to see the right, let us strive on to finish the work we are in; to bind up the nation's wounds—to care for him who shall have borne the battle, and for his widow and his orphan; to do all which may achieve and cherish a just and lasting peace among ourselves and with all nations."

Not otherwise can we make ourselves the living force in the nation Lincoln confidently expected true Americans would become, neither can we make America that living force among nations the fulfillment of our destiny requires.

Between the exploits of the "organized raiders" and other incidents the old town is acquiring some reputation these days.

The stork in Connellsville, like the gassers in Snake Hollow, still holds the lead.

If as Mark Twain's quaint character, "Puddenhead Wilson" said, "Difference of opinion makes horse races," will the difference in the interpretations of the Brooks law start a race to those counties where the judges give all-comers the right to sell without license beverages of less than one-half of one per cent alcohol?

That East Prussia election majority is further proof that two mistakes like two wrongs, never right each other.

There is not much danger that the right of the Pittsburgh newspapers to the exclusive use of the "beautiful gesture" of the Clown Prince will be disputed by their contemporaries in the United countries any more than will the right of Holland to give asylum to the ex-Kaiser be called in question. The Dutch are welcome to both

Don't Wait Longer.

Nobody gives merchandise away these days. Nobody loses money if they can help it. But there are times when circumstances force a man to pocket a loss and leaves him no other alternative but to "grin and bear it."

That's the proposition we are up against just now. We paid for a lot of merchandise that came in late and remained unsold—and we absolutely cannot and will not carry anything over for next season. And as long as they've got to be sold—they might as well be sold quickly. That's why you'll find prices on these garments that are positively rock bottom. Both cost and profit are forgotten—they must be gotten out of here and the price will do it. This is the last call on winter coats, winter suits, winter dresses, furs, hats, etc. all at one-half and less. Beneiner's, Scottdale.—Adv.

Mr. Benjamin Bailer Tells How Cuticura Healed Blotches

"My face became full of blotches on the cheeks and forehead. My skin became very rough and scaly and I was ashamed to appear in public. This caused much suffering and the blotches itched and burned very much, and at times the pain became so intense I could not sleep. The trouble was almost unbearable. Then came pimples, the largest and most painful I ever saw.

"After suffering about five months I heard of Cuticura Soap and Ointment. I used a free sample and bought more, and I used two cakes of Cuticura Soap and one box of Cuticura Ointment and I was healed." (Signed) Benjamin Bailer, 563 Cantrell St., Phila., Pa.

Woman 80 Years Old

Says she owes her wonderful health to Vinol, our Cod Liver and Iron Tonic.

Wooster, O.—"The grippe left me in a weakened, run-down condition. Doctors had given me their best tonics without effect. As I have depended on Vinol to build me up every spring for the past nine years with such good results, I tried it. My appetite improved, my strength came back so I am not only taking care of my household duties, but direct the management of two large farms. I tell all my friends to use Vinol when they need strength."—MRS. MARTHA SICKLES.

Women who are run-down, nervous, lack energy and working strength should take Vinol as it contains Beef and Cod Liver Peptones, Iron and Hypophosphites, the very elements needed to restore a lost appetite, enrich the blood and create strength.

LAUGHREY DRUG CO. Vinol is sold in Dunbar by D. C. JASON, and druggists everywhere.

QUICK RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

Get Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing vegetable laxative.

No griping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action.

If you have a "dark brown mouth"—bad breath—a dull, tired feeling—sick headache—torpid liver—constipation, you'll find quick, sure and pleasant results from one or two of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bedtime.

Thousands take them every night just to keep right. Try them. 10c and 25c.

Taking Care of Fabrics

Perhaps most people do not know it, but it's a fact nevertheless that soiled fabrics of any character, will wear twice as long if kept clean. Of course, there is an art in preserving fabrics, and if this work is done by those who know how, the housewife has little to worry about, in keeping house-furnishings looking spic and span. On the other hand it is cheaper to have these things kept bright and clean by those who know how. A telephone call will bring a representative right to your home.

WORKS HARD TO AVERT FLU EPIDEMIC

Government and City Health Officials Warn People to Keep Clean

Stay Away from People with Coughs and Colds

"Avoid crowds if you want to avoid influenza" says Association for Improving the Conditions of New York.

Keep your hands clean, drink plenty of fresh water, sleep with windows open, eat three uniform meals a day including a good breakfast.

People who have catarrh or frequent colds invite Influenza declares a prominent Kentucky druggist.

The membrane of the throat and nose is raw, sore and tender, and makes a lovely abiding place for germs to thrive and multiply.

He advises an inexpensive home made remedy that will bring relief in less than a day and will stop all discharge and sooth and heal the inflamed membrane in a few days.

Thousands are making this beneficial remedy at home and anyone who has catarrh or a cold can do the same.

Pour three-quarters of an ounce of Mentholized Arene into a pint bottle then fill the bottle with water that has been boiled.

Gargle the throat as directed and snuff or spray the liquid into the nostrils twice daily. It's a simple way to get rid of cold and catarrh and keeps the nasal passage and throat clean and healthy.

Nearly all druggists dispense Mentholized Arene in vials containing exactly three quarters of an ounce which is all you need to make a pint of this healthful medicine.
